SEE YA NEXT YEAR! Students at Emerson School burst through the front doors of the building Friday morning as classes are dismissed for the last time this school year. All schools in the Quad-Cities have now closed until next fall, except for those students who plan to attend summer school. More than 700 students graduated from the four local high schools during ceremonies Thursday and Friday nights. Many elementary and junior high students were honored at awards ceremonies during the last days of the school term.

Much charity work by bingo sponsors

(Last of three articles)
By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Many Quad-City and Madison County bingo operators and players are convinced of three things:

1. Much good is done by the organizations which sponsor bingo. Members volunteer their services to run the games, and the bingo profits are utilized to carry out numerous charitable and community service projects.
2. Local area games are conducted properly and fairly, in contrast to allegations about some of the Chicago-area bingo.
3. Word of Chicago problems is shrinking the size of present bingo crowds statewide and also is jeopardizing the games' future, since legislators may sharply alter the Illinois Bingo License and Tax Act this year. (The senators and representatives are being prodded by statements voiced by the General Assembly's investigating commission.)

The list of service work carried out by bingo sponsors here is a long one. A Granite City employee noted last week, for example, that his group has purchased an ambulance for the benefit of this community, has aided several projects of value to hospital patients, and has made other large contributions.

Illinois elected officials nevertheless are responding favorably to restrictive legislation. A detailed report on bingo was issued April 15 by the Illinois Legislative Investigating Commission.

The commissioners' report to the General Assembly says, "We found the Illinois bingo picture to be colorful and intriguing, as well as problematic. Just as abuses of the law and the legislative intent are often not clear-cut, neither are the possible solutions. Bingo is a very lucrative industry in the state — an industry which can provide much-needed funds for the state and for the worthwhile projects of resident groups."

"The problem lies in how to prevent the growth of undesirable elements in bingo without stifling the intended beneficiaries of the game's legalization — how to stamp out the abuses without placing undue burdens on the legitimate, lawful bingo licensees. We will attempt to address this dilemma by submitting the following recommendations."

"1. The Commission strongly recommends that the $3,400 maximum prize limit be reduced, in order to enable smaller games to compete with the bingo palaces."

"2. The Commission recommends that a limit be placed on the number of bingo sessions permitted at any one location. We recommend a limit of four sessions per week."

"The Commission feels this limit would address both the problems of

Court forces SCA to accept sludge

A Madison County Circuit Court judge Friday afternoon granted Granite City's request for a temporary restraining order to prevent its contracted trash collection and landfill service from detaining city trucks dumping sewage plant sludge into a landfill near East St. Louis.

The 10-day temporary restraining order was granted following testimony from state Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) officials and the city's wastewater plant superintendent that immediate action was needed to prevent possible violations of state pollution laws.

The action was taken against SCA Services of Illinois, Milam East Division, a trash hauling and landfill company, now under contract with the city for these services.

The city sought the restraining order after the company allegedly detained sludge-hauling trucks making daily trips between the city wastewater treatment plant and the SCA landfill on Route 200 south of Madison. According to Superintendent Terrence McMillan, who testified in court Friday afternoon, the delay reduced the number of daily loads of sludge the city was able to dump at the site from about 15 to five.

City officials decided to take legal action Tuesday after a closed city council caucus was held to discuss the alleged truck slowdown by SCA Services. The council had previously discussed a new SCA Services requirement, effective last week, requiring city residents using the SCA Chain of Rocks Landfill (on Chouteau Island) to first obtain a coupon to verify city residency.

Before the court hearing Friday afternoon, attorneys for the city met with SCA Services representatives unsuccessfully for about three hours in an effort to reach an out-of-court settlement. A court hearing seeking a restraining order effective beyond the 10-day limit of the temporary restraining order is expected to be held later this week.

Under a continuing 1977 contract agreement between SCA Services and the city, which gives SCA exclusive trash collection rights at homes in Granite City, the company accepts the treatment plant sludge at no additional charge. In July, 1983, the city is expected to be charged per cubic yard for the sludge.

In an earlier caucus, the city council has been informed of SCA's unhappiness in accepting all the sludge from the plant, since the city's wastewater treatment plant now also serves county users.

McMillan said the plant must dispose of about 120 cubic yards of sludge per day from basic operations alone. In addition, the plant tanks must be cleaned periodically. During his testimony Friday, the superintendent discussed the alternatives facing the plant without a landfill to deposit sludge.

He said the plant recently has been forced to hold the sludge in the processing stage at the plant. A second phase of opening up unused portions of the plant to hold the excess sludge began last Thursday, according to McMillan. A third alternative would be to stockpile the sludge at the site, an EPA violation.

Shrine parade and circus to open here this week

by DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

Decorated floats, performing motorized units, school bands and other organizations will participate in the 10th annual Anad Shrine Parade on Tuesday, June 8, at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of co-chairmen Bob Ashcraft and Sid Stroheide.

Parade entries will be decorated in keeping with this year's themes, "Circus Days" and "Happiness Is," according to Anad Shrine Potentate Mark Moreton.

There will be trophies awarded for the best band and best float and all entries will be judged on originality, beauty and ingenuity. The parade will assemble at Niedringhaus Avenue and State Street and begin its route at 7:30 p.m., traveling east to Madison Avenue, then north on Madison Avenue to the 3000 block, then turn west and disband on the parking lot of Granite City High School South, the chairmen announce.

Ashcraft added that there are more than 90 entries registered for the parade, scheduled to precede the Anad Circus, which has performances set for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 9-11, at Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road (south of Interstate 270).

Potentate Mark Moreton announces the Belleville parade took place at 8 p.m. Friday, with circus performances at the Belle Clair Fairgrounds on Saturday, Sunday and holds its final performance there tonight at 7:30.

Following the circus shows in Granite City, the performers will move to DuQuoin, Ill., for a parade on Saturday, June 12.

Circus performances in DuQuoin will begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, followed by two shows on Sunday at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Tickets costing $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12 are available from any Anad Shrine or at the gate on the dates of the shows.

Among the acts will be a first visit of Wayne and Ingrid Ragen with their Kings of the Jungle, and Abigail and Sundance (a young lady and her horse in special acts), the Chapman sisters on the high revolving ladder, and the Daikias sisters, who perform a balancing act and roll globes up the ramp.

Several elephant acts, the Kardells sisters presentation, and prancing ponies of teacher Engesser, are included on the entertainment program. Highlight of the evening is Norbu the almost-human gorilla plus clowns who entertain throughout the evening.

Potentate Moreton has appointed Bill Piper of Mount Vernon and Kelly Hogan of Granite City as parade marshal and assistant parade marshal, respectively, for all three parades.

Economy bottoms; recovery predicted by area leaders

By GEORGEANN MCGEE
of the Press-Record

"We're really there — practically at a crisis level," Drew Karandjeff, president of Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, told area government and business leaders, who sat down together last week to reflect on a four-week economic training seminar they attended this spring.

Their ranks had thinned by half from a peak attendance of about 60 during the training sessions held in March. The theme of the group had switched from the impersonal tone of economic study to a hard core focus on the city's unemployment.

"It's really jobs we're talking about and nothing else," said

Karandjeff, who cited the city's latest unemployment statistics.

The most recent unemployment figures gathered for April by the Illinois Department of Labor list 16 percent unemployment in Granite City. In March, this city led the area with 16.5 percent unemployment.

The banker said this area cannot wait any longer in its drive to put the people in town back to work.

According to Carl E. Mathias, Madison County service area manager of Illinois Power Co., the area, "Can't afford any further deterioration." Illinois Power sponsored the training sessions and has at stake the 427-acre Northgate Industrial Park on the outskirts of Granite City, which sits waiting for prospects.

"We've done about all we can do to encourage action," Mathias told community leaders Wednesday. He said it is time for someone to step forward and say, "Here's what needs to be done."

Alan Richardson, executive vice-president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, said that the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp. is running at less than half capacity. General retail sales are down drastically here, he said.

Determining now what action needs to be taken was exactly the

No pinching in library

Four women employees at the Granite City Public Library described the antics of an elderly Granite City man with "an eye for the ladies," who has been visiting the library for the past few months and creating "difficulties."

At 8:40 a.m. Friday, the women informed an officer that the man frequently comes into the library makes personal remarks and sometimes even pinches the ladies on their "derrieres."

Communication with the culprit, who is 84 years old, is difficult because he is deaf, police were told.

An officer talked with the man, who didn't deny the allegations and commented that he "likes to look at pretty legs and tell the ladies about their good qualities."

He offered an apology to the women.

Additional GC Council action—at a glance

Additional Granite City Council discussions and actions last week included the following.

Mayor Paul Schuler appointed Paul Derossett as humane officer, to replace retiring officer Andrew Chiappa. Carl Hozian Jr., a past city manpower employee, was appointed to fill Derossett's former job at the Humane Department. The appointments, approved by the council, bring to two the number of employees in that service.

Resident Glen Bettorff, a member of the governor's advisory committee on handicap access, told aldermen that building permits are being issued here that do not follow the state's Access Illinois Handbook. Bettorff pointed to the Granite City Township Building, which he says does not have the necessary curb cuts, required since 1977. Bettorff called for followup building inspections that check for access compliance. He praised the work of the city's Street Superintendent Mac Warfield in meeting access requirements.

During the public hearing on the city's brief federal revenue-sharing budget, City Clerk Robert Stevens and City Treasurer Nick Petrillo made the only two official requests for the federal funds, expected to be nearly depleted by the city's payroll demands this budget year. Petrillo made a request for a $2,000 counter to be installed in the treasurer's office—a request he has made in the past. Stevens requested $2,000 to pay for periodic updates in the city's municipal code book. No residents spoke during the hearing, conducted by City Comptroller Joseph Miklovic at the Granite City Township Hall while most aldermen were in a budget session across the street at city hall.

Alderman Paul Fisk has asked the city attorney to prepare specific guidelines for residents to follow in applying for home occupation permits in residential areas.

Rain helping local gardens

By CHRIS DOLL,
Area Garden Adviser

Rains during the Memorial Day weekend ended what was a dry spring. It was good for all perennial garden plants and for most of the annuals—if it didn't drown them or blow them out of the ground.

Ample moisture and warm temperatures will speed up plant growth and weed emergence. Thus, June is a month for gardeners to enjoy growing and weeding their crops.

Strawberry harvest is progressing rapidly and is time to taste for the best variety. Note that big husky plants yield the most big berries.

Many fruit trees are heavily infested with aphids or plant lice. Usually, these congregated on the terminals and suck the sap from young leaves. They can cause stunting of new growth and also give off honeydew, which is messy and attracts ants. Natural predators frequently catch up with and control aphids, but sprays of malathion or diazinon also reduce populations if applied at the right time and often enough.

Plant pumpkins June 10 to 15 for Halloween. They take about 110 to 120 days to mature.

Spray fruit trees that have a crop of fruit. Use an all-purpose fruit tree spray mix or use your own approved mix. Non-bearing trees should not need a spray unless insect pests begin feeding on the foliage. Read and follow the label before spraying maturing fruits. Quit harvesting asparagus by mid-month. This crop has been using up stored food reserves from the roots and now needs time to replenish itself. After the last cutting, apply 3½ pounds per 100 square feet of 12-12-12 or other complete garden fertilizer to the plants.

This will provide plenty of nutrients for growth for next year's crops.

Continue harvesting rhubarb as you wish—providing that the plants are kept fertilized and watered. Rhubarb will continue to grow and produce if the essential ingredients of water and nutrients are present.

Continue planting crops such as sweet corn, green beans and cucumbers. This will provide extra harvest periods for expired or insect-damaged plantings. Also, start tomatoes for late season planting if you want vigorous tomato plants in the fall.

Spray the trunks of peach trees and other stone fruit trees with carbaryl (Sevin) for peach borer control by June 10. Use four tablespoons of chemical per gallon and wet the trunk and crotch areas with the solution. Two more sprays will be needed in early July and early August.

Cultivate sweet potatoes and apply herbicide immediately thereafter. This treatment will provide weed control until the vines are growing and shading the soil.

Don't let weeds get ahead of you. Light hoeings or shallow cultivation will prevent weed problems. No weeds should be allowed to make seeds in the vegetable garden area.

This apples so they are 7 to 9 inches apart, and plums to 2 to 3 inches apart. Any insect, disease or frost-damaged fruits can be removed in the process. Well-spaced trees will develop better flavor and color, and won't break down the tree.

Cultivate and hoe new strawberry plantings. After the patch is cleaned up, apply a herbicide and water it in. This will give you eight weeks of freedom from most weeds.

Work progresses at APA humane shelter

"June is Cat Month," was the topic of discussion at the May meeting of the Association for the Protection of Animals (APA).

The nearly 20 members hoped that by bringing "Cat Month" to the attention of area residents, better care would be given to the feline population.

The members held their meeting at the shelter to determine what should be completed next as funds become available. In the last three years, the shell of the building was erected on Old Alton Road. In the last year, the exterior walls and ceiling have been completed.

The furnace has been installed as well as part of the wiring. The walls of the animal pens are partially completed and work is planned for the access road. A donation of $100 was accepted with gratitude from Mary Friday in memory of her pet Chico and her son. Discussion ensued concerning the establishment of a $100 Club. This group of donors would have their names placed on a wooden plaque that would hang in the shelter. Members discussed other items needed for the shelter, including a frost-free refrigerator, plumbing fixtures, water heater, drinking fountain, propane gas tank, inside doors, door knobs, light fixtures, hoses, fans, portable heaters and cabinets.

New officers were installed for the 1982-83 year: Carol Wiloughby and Jo Ann Hommerl, co-presidents; Regina Zarr, secretary; and Thelma Mitchell, treasurer. Those who wish to make a donation or desire becoming an A.P.A. member, please write the APA in care of Box 1311, Granite City.

SIUE's first 4-year dental class graduated Saturday

The first class to graduate from the four-year curriculum at Southern Illinois University School of Dental Medicine received the doctor of dental medicine degree at commencement exercises Saturday.

Candidates for the post-doctoral certificate in the school's one-year General Practice Residency Program, who will complete requirements at the end of June, also were honored. The school adopted a four-year education program in 1978 and graduated the first three-year class in 1980. Dr. Diego Redondo, vice-chairman of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, gave the commencement address. Dr. Redondo was chairman of the Dental Education Committee which reviewed dental education in the state last September and recommended SIU-SDM be continued. He will be introduced by Dr. Kenneth Shaw, chancellor of the SIU System.

SIUE President Earl Larson welcomed guests and conferred degrees on 50 members of the graduating class. Dr. Sheldon Cohen, director of the residency program, assisted SIU-SDM Dean Herbert C. Butts in presenting post-doctoral certificates to four residency candidates. Christopher Sehy, a member of the Class of 1982, was elected to speak for the graduates.

Other officials on the program included Dr. Butts and Dr. Patrick Perrillo, assistant professor of endodontics and chairman of the curriculum committee, to present diplomas; Dr. Barbara Teters, SIUE vice-president and provost, and Dr. Sidney Raylin, associate professor of oral and maxillofacial surgery and chairman of the faculty assembly, to assist with the hooding ceremony. Dr. Philip Hoag, associate dean, to announce candidates and the Rev. James Wheeler, campus minister, to give the invocation and benediction. Music, including a pre-commencement concert, was provided by the SIUE Business Administration.

A reception honoring the seventh graduating class at SIU-SDM was held in the Goshen Lounge of the University Center immediately after the program.

KIDWELL PROMOTED TO SENIOR AIRMAN

Raymond P. Kidwell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Kidwell of 2203 Illinois Ave., Granite City, has been specially identified for early promotion to senior airman in the U.S. Air Force. He was awarded the new rating ahead of other Air Force members by a "below-the-zone" promotion board which considered job performance, military knowledge, bearing and self-improvement efforts. place competition with smaller games and the problem of monopolization of the bingo dollar through affiliated groups. This change would affect only so organizations playing at 15 locations (including the Madison County Firemen's hall and the Namekiki bingo center).

"3. The Commission recommends that DOR (the Illinois Department of Revenue) continue in its efforts to improve its enforcement of the Bingo License and Tax Act.

"We specifically recommend that DOR conduct thorough and complete screening and investigation of all license applicants.

"4. The Commission also recommends that DOR strictly enforce the state's bingo laws and gambling laws as they apply to bingo licensees.

"The opportunity to benefit bingo, a form of legalized gambling, is a privilege, no matter how reputable the organization or how noble its cause, should be penalized according to the letter of the law.

Every organization should be put on notice that no violations will be tolerated.

"5. The Commission encourages DOR to implement a program of frequent, random, unannounced site visits to bingo licensees, and to develop an on-site procedure to determine gross proceeds.

"We recommend that gross proceeds figures determined at site visits be retained and used to monitor trends in specific bingo licensees' reporting of proceeds, especially after anticipated computerization of bingo records is completed.

"6. The Commission recommends that DOR explore ways to more efficiently collect bingo taxes so that the bulk of the agency's efforts with respect to bingo can be devoted to screening applicants, enforcing regulations and monitoring the conduct of the games.

"One such method which should be explored is the sale of tax stamps to bingo licensees.

"These tax stamps could be affixed to dated bingo cards by the licensee at the time of sale.

"An inspector during the course of a game would immediately review whether or not the tax requirements of the bingo statute were being met, leaving more time for the inspector to concentrate on other provisions of the law.

"It should be noted that such an inspection would also determine whether the licensee was paying tax on each card sold, thus eliminating the inefficiency of relying on the licensee's honesty in reporting gross proceeds when assessing tax responsibility.

"7. The Commission recommends that Subsection 7 of Section 1 of the Bingo License and Tax Act be amended by deleting the reference to what items would be included in the definition of 'reasonable expenses' and instead grant authority to DOR to promulgate regulations for the determination of what constitutes 'reasonable expenses' in previous years, rather than on lessor-provided estimates of anticipated expenses.

"8. The Commission encourages the General Assembly to consider making additional appropriations to DOR, and to require that these appropriations be specifically devoted to the administration and enforcement of the Bingo License and Tax Act.

"9. The Commission recommends that the General Assembly amend Section 1 of the Bingo License and Tax Act to allow DOR to stagger license renewal dates, in order that DOR may more thoroughly screen applicants for renewed licenses.

"The Commission also recommends that Section 4 of the Bingo License and Tax Act be amended to allow DOR to suspend, as well as revoke, licenses.

"10. We recommend that the reference in Section Eleven of the Retailers' Occupation Tax Act found in Section 3 of the Bingo License and Tax Act which deals with confidentiality be deleted.

"The Commission feels that the documents required to be submitted to DOR pursuant to the Bingo Act do not contain information of a personal or sensitive nature justifying their confidentiality.

"In fact, some bingo licensees are required to file federal tax returns even though they are exempt organizations under the Internal Revenue Code, and those returns are available upon request to anyone.

"Also, in order to more fully utilize the resources of law enforcement agencies in enforcing the Bingo Act, it is essential that DOR be able to freely share information with those agencies.

"However, a provision should be included that would require DOR to notify the licensee when bingo records are shared with an outside agency, and those licensees would be allowed the process prior to the release of such records.

"However, a provision should be included that would require DOR to notify the licensee when bingo records are shared with an outside agency, and those licensees would be allowed the process prior to the release of such records.

"Furthermore, the deletion of this section should not be interpreted to mean that the outside agency also should be allowed access to the books and records of the licensee itself.

"11. The Commission recommends that DOR revise its system of filing information relating to bingo licensees, in such a way as to make such information more readily retrievable by personnel in both the Springfield and Chicago offices.

"We understand that plans for such revision are currently being devised.

"12. The Commission recommends that DOR amend Rule 5 of the Bingo Act regulations requiring of each bingo licensee that a complete record, which will provide for full disclosure of transactions related to the conduct of bingo, be prepared on a monthly basis.

"It should include but not be limited to: (a) a cash receipts journal—providing for a detailed accounting by bingo play date indicating the number of players, bingo receipts, sales of supplies, other receipts, bingo funds used for a cash bank, prizes awarded, and resulting net deposit to be tendered to the bingo checking account.

"(b) a cash disbursements journal—providing for a detailed accounting of amount of check, check number, date paid, payee, and purpose of payment.

"(c) a general ledger—providing for an accounting of journal entries, indicating the activities occurring in real and nominal accounts related to the conduct of bingo; and,

"(d) Documentary evidence—providing for check registers, cancelled checks, bank statements, bank reconciliations, purchase invoice files, and any or all documents or vouchers to substantiate transactions recorded in the books of account.

"The Commission also recommends that the requirement that a bingo licensee deposit all funds earned through bingo in a checking account separate from all other funds be strictly enforced, and that no checks drawn on this account be permitted to be made out to 'Cash.'

"13. The Commission recommends that DOR further amend Rule 5 so that premises providers also be required to maintain the above-mentioned records, and that the cash receipts journal include a complete record of all revenue-producing activities.

"This record should be prepared monthly and should include lease date, lessee's name, date bingo license amount of rent, sales of concessions, and other income.

Massa says he did not divert assets

James J. Massa, a Collinsville attorney who was a major owner of the bankrupt Silt & Co. rock brokerage, denied Friday that he has diverted any of its assets.

A complaint was filed against him Thursday by Harry O. Moline Jr., court-appointed Silt trustee, seeking to recover funds, securities or property.

Massa, a Silt director, said he never withdrew money from any margin accounts through pledging false securities. He said all of his withdrawals were part of normal procedures.

The suit by Moline is similar to one he filed in February against Thomas R. Brimberry of Granite City, seeking to recoup some of the $14 million losses sustained by Silt when federal authorities shut down the firm in November 1981.

Massa had represented Brimberry in legal cases before the attorney purchased an interest in the brokerage.

The trustee's suit alleges Massa conspired to have records falsified to conceal the absence of funds that were then used to buy property, establish bank accounts, and open security accounts at other brokerages.

Early steel talks sought

The steel industry's eight-company bargaining group, including National Steel Corp., owner of Granite City Steel, has proposed early contract talks with the United Steelworkers of America to reduce wage and benefit increases.

The union has called a meeting June 18 of its executive board members and also the presidents of the 560 locals in the basic steel industry conference.

The present three-year pact does not expire until Aug. 1, 1983, but many firms, including National Steel, are experiencing losses due to slack demand and inroads by foreign steel.

Earlier this year, auto makers obtained pay and benefit concessions from United Auto Workers.

The 1980 steel agreement boosted earnings and benefits about 40 percent over the three years.

Average steelworker pay at present is said to be $13.88 an hour, or $22 including fringes, pensions and insurance.

Any adverse effects of chemicals on the military and civilian veterans of the State.

The commission is requesting that persons wishing to testify at the hearing submit 15 copies of written testimony at the time of the hearing and that they contact Mary at the Commission at 1-217-782-5336 to register.

Written testimony may be of any length, but oral testimony will be limited to five minutes to allow the maximum number of witnesses to participate, Vadalabene noted.

Chouteau Township will hold a public budget hearing at 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 9, at the Chouteau Town Hall, 697 N. Thorngate Drive, to approve or reject proposed budgets totaling $196,152, an increase of $41,498 over last year's total.

Projected expenditures of $90,130 in the town fund account show an increase of $8,929, as compared to last year's total of $90,201; and in the general assistance fund, a tentative figure is $40,975, an increase of $6,483.

The federal revenue sharing budget of $65,047 is $10,047 more than the $39,000 budgeted in the account for the 1981-82 appropriation.

Representing the electric power utility will be Bob Hardy of KMOX Radio.

Interested developers, municipal officials, business people and others interested in learning more about the communication process are being encouraged to register for the seminar. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the SUEC at 1-692-3568.

Participants will be welcomed to the seminar by James Holdreder, manager of economic development at the St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association. Ruth Jacobson and J. K. Beisner, Inc., public relations firm of Fleishman-Hillard, Inc. will present a session on the communication process.

Speakers representing the print media will include:

Curley's, Diner, 1018 Broadway, Venice, was robbed by a knife-wielding man, wearing a green turban, wearing light green pants and white work gloves, at 6:45 p.m. Saturday.

Sharon Muller of Granite City, an employee at the diner, said she and a patron were talking when a black man, carrying a butcher knife, came inside the restaurant, ran to the table and grabbed her by the arm, ordering her to open the cash register.

After Mrs. Muller complied, the robber grabbed all the currency he could take and fled, dropping some of the money on the floor with a glove he was wearing.

The area of the diner was searched by Venice officers and the clothing worn by the robber was changed by Corporal James Bennett on Collinsville Street, not far from the restaurant.

The amount of money taken in the robbery had not been determined today.

Some property not fit to rent say Venice adermen

At the Venice City Council meeting last week, aldermen reviewed instances of occupancy permits being issued to persons renting "obvious" substandard housing and questioned the judgment of those responsible.

Mayor Tyrone Echols suggested council members expressing concern about the problem be alerted when premises are going to be inspected prior to the issuance of a permit.

Second Ward Alderman George Mangiarino questioned who gave out the permits. "Those places are supposed to be inspected," he said.

Mayor Echols said, "We're going to have to get with the inspector and demand minimum standards in an inspection."

"The bottom line is...I wind up getting all the complaints, because people have no where to live. I believe it is incumbent on the aldermen to go with the inspector."

"In there any chance we can be informed when an occupancy permit is to be granted so an alderman could go and look at the property?" asked First Ward Alderman Phillip Daniels.

The mayor said, "Sure, sure. You are the ones who are going to get the heat in your ward."

"I agree. I think we should all go and look at them," said first Ward Alderman John T. Flegel stated, "You can tell whether it's fit to live in," he added.

When it was noted the city inspector frequently inspects property early in the morning, Third Ward Alderman Charles May stated, "We are all interested in these houses and if he goes at 6 a.m., we'll go at 6 a.m."

"When you know the location, you could go look at the property at 6 o'clock at night. It wouldn't matter when you went," the mayor commented.

Alderman Flegel initiated the permit discussion, noting a house in the 100 block of Weber recently had been rented again despite "the basement door hanging off, windows broken and no steps. People are living in a place like that," he said.

Third Ward Alderman Victor A. Valentine Sr. asked for police officers to be more alert to crossing gathering in front of a tavern on Weaver Street and instances of public drinking in the street.

"I hate to say give out tickets and I hate to say run them in, but we have to do what it takes to stop it and we have the laws on the books," he stressed.

He also suggested that families living in the new Bissell Street housing complex be alerted to the curfew laws regarding young people who are frequently seen playing in the street at late hours.

Concern about catch basins being full of leaves preventing water from draining was expressed by Second Ward Alderman Hank A. Svezia.

Fourth Ward Alderman John Ervin responded, "We've kind of run into this had this week...all kinds of debris is washing down. I've looked and the catch basins are clean, but they won't catch plastic stuff being thrown out."

Mayor Echols said he went and cleaned out a catch basin personally when a man came to his house and complained. In some instances, I found kids had been throwing stones into them."

"Anytime you have stormy weather as we had last Friday night, you can't do too much about it," he added.

Reporting on the discontinuation of ambulance service, Mayor Echols reported meeting with supervisors from Chouteau and Nameoki townships and people from Pontoon Beach to get a report from a firm which was willing to provide service at $75 per call.

"I am to talk again with Officers (funeral home) next week and they are to get back with a proposal," he said. A tentative figure of $65 per call had been quoted earlier by the East St. Louis firm, he pointed out.

Fourth Ward Alderman George Lewis asked, "Who'll be responsible for paying the fee if the individual can't?"

"As long as the call originates through the police department, I don't think it's going to break us to pay $65," Mayor Echols commented.

Children's tryouts for Muny Saturday

The Municipal Theatre Association of St. Louis (the Muny) will hold its annual open children's auditions on Saturday, June 12. The Muny is looking for talented youngsters between the ages of 8 and 12, and between 4 and 5 feet in height, to appear in one of two plays.

Boys will be auditioned at 10 a.m. and girls at 11 a.m. at the west rehearsal platform at the Muny in Forest Park.

Auditions must be able to both sing and dance. They should bring their own dance shoes and be prepared to learn and perform dance steps which will be taught to them at the time. No tap dancing is required.

They also will be asked to sing briefly to demonstrate their vocal ability and ability to learn.

Joining hundreds of women from all over Illinois, four local delegates attended the 51st annual state assembly of the National Council of Women, held in Naperville.

Representing Church Women United in the Quad-City area were Nona Corzilius, president of the local unit, and board member Dolores Vogeler, Marie Gordon, who is a state executive board member, and Joyce Schrader, who serves on the national board.

During the three-day state assembly, which provided a choice of 10 workshops dealing with the interest areas of CWU, the women participated in worship, study, action, and celebration.

Among the speakers addressing the assembly were Sister Marjorie Taite, CWU national coordinator for Ecumenical Citizen Action and a long time activist in movements for civil rights, and peace and justice for women.

E. Terry Hamilton, national coordinator for mentally. It will not be necessary to bring sheet music to the auditions. Members of the performing unions will be auditioned first.

The Muny also will hold Equity auditions for children's roles in "The Sound of Music" on Monday, June 7. All children wishing to try out must be members of Actor's Equity Union and between the ages of 8 and 14.

These auditions will begin at 3 p.m. and are by appointment only. Auditioners will be required to sing and dance and may be asked to read from a script.

They should bring sheet music in their own key. An accompanist will be provided.

Children auditioning for "The Sound of Music" also must be able to travel outside St. Louis for two to three weeks during the summer. To make an appointment, candidates must call The Muny publicity office at 314-361-1900, extension 35.

Further reports on the state assembly and plans for projects will be given at the local meeting on Tuesday, June 8, at 11 p.m. at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church. Representatives from all Quad-City churches are urged to attend, according to the president.

Other speakers were Martin Thomas, assistant professor of communications, Loyola University, Chicago, and Maria Elena Ortega, director of the Illinois Farm Workers Service Center in Oxnard, Ill.

Mrs. Corzilius and Mrs. Gordon attended a newly formed leaders council of local unit presidents and state executive board members. Mrs. Corzilius also attended a workshop on the "Fund for the Fifth Decade" which explains the campaign for a capitol fund drive benefiting all levels of the CWU movement and which will be undertaken by the Quad-City area early next fall.

point of the season, Richardson told the group. He used the meeting to look for the ideas, suggestions and support of the larger group to incorporate into the preliminary plans already mapped out by the Chambers' smaller 17-member Economic Development Committee.

Noting the absence of invited labor leaders and representatives of some industrial organizations, those present expressed a desire for a consolidation of efforts by all interests.

"We can't get with one another any more," said Matthias Karandjoff said a Rotary Prayer Breakfast scheduled June 16 is expected to provide a neutral meeting ground for labor leaders and economic developers.

In addition to the suggestion for further union involvement, those breaking up into workshops, those in attendance returned with about two dozen other ideas for Richardson and the Economic Development Committee to consider.

Other proposals from the group included: using the computer expertise of Granite City's Community Unit School District 9 to assemble and store fluctuating economic facts; identifying vocational training programs and their relationships to actual jobs available.

Studying important business legislation; reviewing the uncertain future of industrial revenue bonds; approaching local financial institutions about offering special financial packages to prospective investors.

Forming a government-industry-labor joint fund to finance economic studies; compiling a list of unions in the area; investigating ways to grow the possibilities for landlocked communities, such as Madison; seeking the help of government agencies.

Using the resources of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, especially the results of its industrial extension study; hiring a professional to market the area, and creating a marketable theme for the area.

The Development Committee, in the meantime, is continuing to gather information for two showcase booklets. One will be general, an enticement mailer. The Chamber will produce a second detailed data booklet for likely industrial prospects. The data booklet is expected to take about six months to compile.

Richardson said a third booklet on the quality of life in the Quad-Cities already is being prepared by the local Board of Realtors. The booklet will be used as a marketing tool for both the realtors and the city's economic growth project.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk said he believes the next most immediate step towards successfully cooperation among all these groups — government, industry and labor — should be for each city in the Quad-Cities Area to hold its own smaller divisional meeting first.

Sasyk called a fuller representation by industry the most essential ingredient before the group reaches its goal. "We're looking for some answers, but you aren't going to get it tonight," Sasyk said, referring to the unequal representation that night. The involvement process is going to take time, according to Richardson.

One industrial representative, William Donovan of American Steel Foundries, said his company had almost doubled in size here in the last 10 years. Donovan reaffirmed his industry's hopes for a future here. He said American Steel expects the economy to revive and his company to prosper here.

At the same time, he said, competition for American Steel, which manufactures steel castings, has increased to world-wide proportions with competitive bidding now including many Soviet bloc countries.

Donovan has committed himself to the Chamber's efforts as a member of the Business-Industrial Liaison of the Economic Development Committee.

Another industrial representative and Economic Development Committee member attending, Donald Partney, president of Granite Sheet Metal, suggested the Chamber undertake a comparison study of actual construction and labor costs in relationship to statistics that he finds cited in his industry.

Jim Peters of C.D. Peters suggested industrial prospects be confronted directly with union representatives before any conclusions are drawn between the two parties.

When Richardson began the session Wednesday, he said the immediate future of this area was not bright, but ended the session with a positive message — "We're headed in the right direction."

ARREST MAN, 23, NEAR GRIGSBY SCHOOL

While checking an alarm at Grigsby Junior High School at 5:10 p.m. Friday, an officer saw Mark A. Wilder, 23, of Box 719, Burr Ridge, 23, near the school building, allegedly smoking a marijuana cigarette.

He allegedly had a plastic bag in his pocket, containing eight grams of marijuana and was arrested and charged with unlawful possession of cannabis.

Also unopposed were John A. Ray of Springfield, state secretary-elect, and August C. Hurt of Oak Park, state treasurer-elect.

The officers will be installed Saturday, July 24, by Bishop Arthur J. O'Neill of St. Thomas More Church, 81st and California, Chicago, during ceremonies at a 6 p.m. Mass.

Mitchell considering building water plant

INTRUDER RUNS Charles Westbrook, 2156 Adams St., told police last week that his daughter had seen someone standing in the living room when she arrived home. The man ran out a rear door as she entered the dwelling. Nothing appeared to be missing, he said.

The Board of Trustees of the Mitchell Public Water District has authorized Mitchell Associates, Inc., consulting engineers, to study the feasibility of constructing the water district's own water treatment plant.

The district purchases water from the Illinois-American Water Company for resale to approximately 1,825 customers.

However, in its contract with the Illinois-American Water Company, the Mitchell Water District is prohibited from selling water beyond its boundaries.

Of greater concern is that the Illinois Commerce Commission has recently allowed the Illinois-American Water Company to extend water lines into the District to serve the new Pre-Cast Metals plant, explained Earl Phelps, board chairman for Mitchell Public Water District. He said the board intends to consider the consulting report carefully.

The results of the study are expected to be presented at the next regular meeting of the Mitchell Water board of trustees, he noted.

A fire last week in the newly-completed Farm Fresh Dairy in Madison's Dave Connole Alpine Village Mini-mall, Third Street and Madison Avenue, caused only minor damage and is not expected to delay the opening of the store.

Plumbers soldering refrigeration lines near a wall started the fire when flames went around a heat shield they were using and caught the paper wrapping on some of the wall insulation on fire.

Tigers down Kahoks Devils edge East in Sectional

By JIM SCHLUETER
for the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Collinsville baseball team had to be asking itself what had happened to Derrick Mosley. The Kahoks had beaten the Tiger pitcher, 7-2 earlier this season, but Mosley moved down Collinsville in the Granite City South Sectional Saturday. The Tigers beat the Kahoks 4-1, the first time Edwardsville had beaten Collinsville in three outings this year. Edwardsville will meet Murphysboro at 4 p.m. this afternoon in the Granite City Sectional championship.

While the Kahoks had little trouble with Mosley three weeks ago, they couldn't touch him Saturday. They only

"We just couldn't lay off the high fastball. We just couldn't handle it."
Russ Keene
Collinsville baseball coach

manged two hits off the Tiger hurler, and their only run came with the help of an error.

Mosley used a rising fastball and good breaking ball to keep the Kahoks off stride and end their season with a 20-12 record.

"We just couldn't lay off the high fastball," Collinsville coach Russ Keene said. "We just couldn't handle it."

Mosley, 7-6, also struck out ten batters in what Keene called the best performance his team has faced this year. Although Edwardsville did not make an error in the Edwardsville Regional, the Tigers defense was still suspect. However, the Kahoks could not test it.

"We never made them handle the ball," Keene said. "I never saw us strike out so much."

It was Collinsville's fielding problems that allowed the Tigers to score all four of its runs off Tom Lewis in the second. The win adjusts the Tiger record to 23-23, quite different from their 4-16 record of just half a season ago.

The Tigers' Scott Gerdes singled to open the second, and Todd Hansel followed with a slow roller to second that Ken Vartanian couldn't handle.

A walk to Brett Flaughner loaded the bases with nobody out, and Tim Blythe followed with a single to center that scored Gerdes and Hansel. An error by center fielder Paul Wedesky then allowed Flaughner and Blythe to advance to second and third.

Flaughner scored on a single by Greg Colligan, and after Mosley flied out Kevin King grounded to short to score Blythe.

The Kahoks only run came in the sixth. With one out Brad Mayes reached on an error by Gerdes at short. After Wedesky flied to center, Vartanian rapped a double to left that scored Mayes.

In what could have gotten Collinsville back into the game, Steve Blumner sliced a Mosley pitch into short right field. But Blythe came up with a diving catch to end the Kahok inning.

Murphysboro, 16-7, upset top seeded Belleville East 5-2 to set up the unlikely Sectional final. East, which ended the season at 29-6, committed four surprising errors to give the Red Devils three unearned runs.

McDonald's stifles Corral

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor

GRANITE CITY — In Wednesday's intra-city battle of the Inter-City Baseball League, McDonald's defeated Corral Liqueurs 6-1. The win improves McDonald's record to 3-2 on the season, while Corral falls to 1-2.

The final score is not indicative of the closeness of the contest. For example, McDonald's managed seven hits, only one more than Corral. The difference being McDonald's hits came in clutch situations.

One such situation came in McDonald's half of the third inning when lead off batter Bill Dalton singled to left field.

Then on a hit and run situation, Pat Hogan, following Dalton, singled to center field. Corral center fielder Mark Clark's throw caught Hogan attempting to stretch the single into a double. Dalton scored on the play at second to break the 0-0 deadlock.

With the bases now cleared in that inning, Ken Wilson grounded to short stop Mike Clark. Clark's throw to first baseman Tom Greco went awry permitting Wilson to reach on an error. Wilson stole second and advanced to third on Dan Schaus's foul out to Greco. In an attempt to get Wilson on the play, Greco's throw got away from Dan Patterson, going out of play, scoring Wilson.

Corral retaliated as lead off batter John Lakin, a designated hitter for starting pitcher Ken Crawford, tripled to center field. Lakin scored two batters later on a ground ball by teammate John Krekovich.

In the fourth inning, McDonald's exploded for four runs to take a commanding 6-1 lead. Dan Fechte led off with a single to left field. Following a ground out by Terry Page, and pass to first base to Kevin Sykes who had been hit by a Crawford pitch, Dalton singled scoring Fechte.

Lead off batter Hogan then slammed the door on Corral with a three run homer, scoring Sykes, Dalton and himself.

In the fifth inning, both teams made pitching changes. For Corral, second baseman Doug Rains rescued Crawford, while McDonald's Tim Kirksey relieved starter Keith Burton. Both pitchers held the opposition scoreless. Corral managed to load the bases in the seventh, but were unable to advance a runner to home.

This Sunday at 1 p.m., Collinsville will play McDonald's at Wilson Park diamond one, while Edwardsville will face the Red Sox in Maryville. Corral Liqueurs has a bye.

McD: Hogan 2-3, 1B HR; Fechte 2-3, 2-1B; Dalton 2-3, 2-1B; Parker 1-3, 3B; WP Burton.

Cor: Mike Clark 1-4, 2B; Rains 1-4, 1B; Greco 1-4, 1B; Hagenbrock 1-3, 1B, Lakin 1-3, 3B; Krekovich 1-3, 1B.

Incentive for safe driving

Beginning July 1, the state will waive the written exam for those 45.6 percent of all Illinois motorists who have a safe driving history when they apply for renewal of their driver licenses.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar is acting under the discretionary power given him in a new law that goes into effect with the 1982-83 fiscal year.

The law allows the secretary of state to exempt from the written test drivers whose records indicate they have not been convicted of any traffic offenses or involved in any auto accidents in recent years, depending on the severity of any offense.

Previously, all motorists have been required to take the examination once every nine years.

"It is important to reward safe drivers as it is to penalize those who are unsafe," Edgar said.

"By making the driver license renewal process less traumatic and quicker, this new procedure should provide an incentive for Illinois motorists to maintain good driving records."

"It also should help reduce waiting periods at some driver facilities," Edgar said.

The secretary of state's office has begun notifying drivers whose licenses expire in July of the new law through license renewal forms which are mailed at least 30 days in advance of the license expiration date. Eligibility for the waiver will be checked by computer when drivers bring license renewal forms to the state facilities.

Every nine years, drivers under the age of 69 are required to take the written and vision tests. The written examination, which takes about 20 minutes to complete, consists of multiple choice, true-false and sign identification questions.

To pass the written examination, persons applying for automobile licenses must answer 28 of 35 questions correctly.

An additional 15 to 25 questions are administered to motorists applying for licenses to operate vehicles other than passenger cars. There were 7,740,828 Illinois driver licenses issued as of Jan. 1, 1982, including 401,743 that had been expired for less than one year.

Of the 718,915 persons whose licenses expire between July 1982 and June 1983, 45.6 percent, or 334,295 will be exempt from the written examination.

A total of 3,534,372 of the 7,740,828 licensed drivers had no convictions or accidents entered on the driving records as of Jan. 1, 1982.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne

Payne-Lewis

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Debbie Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lewis, Rural Route One, Granite City, and Charles Payne, son of Mrs. Judy Hancock, 1553 Garfield Ave., on May 15 at Briarcliff Pentecostal Church.

The Rev. Milton Roe performed a double ring ceremony at 6 o'clock in the evening before an altar decorated with an arrangement of white carnations, pink and blue roses and white daisies intermingled with pink and blue forget-me-nots, and centered with three candles. Nuptial selections included, "You Decorated My Life" and "Endless Love." For her wedding, the bride selected a full length Chantilly lace over bridal satin gown created with a Victorian bodice and neckline and a sheer sash marking the waistline.

Her slightly full skirt terminated in a chapel length train and was edged with a matching ruffle. She wore a cathedral length veil, bordered with scallop lace, held in place with a headpiece created with silk roses and leaves. Her bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white carnations, blue and pink roses, fern and angel lace.

Mrs. Nell Prusa was the matron of honor. She was attired in a long dress fashioned in a white background fabric embellished with pink and white flowers. Spaghetti straps accented the fitted bodice and the full skirt was draped at the hemline and enhanced with matching bows. A sister of the bride, Miss Diana Lewis, was the bridesmaid. She wore a gown similar to the honor attendant created in a blue and white floral design fabric.

They held colonial bouquets of blue roses, pink forget-me-nots with white daisies and baby's breath. Aggie Harris and Brock Hill served as flower girl and ring bearer. She was dressed in a pink chiffon off the shoulder frock featuring a gathered flounce at the hemline, and a pink and white ribbon sash at the waistline.

Raski-Nunes

The First United Presbyterian Church was the scene of the wedding on March 27 of Miss Janet E. Nunes, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nunes of Granite City, and Richard A. Raski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Raski of Fairmont City, Ill. Soloist Al Stevens III, accompanied by organist, Mrs. Isabel Schmidt, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "H," during the double ring service.

The Rev. David Maxion performed the ceremony at 6:30 in the evening. Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Nunes chose an A-line white chiffon and Chantilly lace gown designed with a Queen Anne neckline, lace bodice, and long lace Bishop style sleeves.

Her chiffon tiered skirt was accented with a Chantilly lace edging, and fell softly into a chapel train. She wore a lace Juliet cap to secure her waltz length veil of bridal illusion.

Mrs. Karen Browning, a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Sheila Nunes, Mrs. Sherri Walker and Mrs. Jo Ann Waugh. They were attired in lavender chiffon formal dresses and each carried a bouquet of lavender tip carnations.

Stacey Nunes, a niece of the bride, and Chad Lucas Browning, served as the flower girl and ring bearer. The groom chose Paul Urban as best man, Ed Walker, Joe Walker, Ted Raski Jr., John Nunes Jr. and Bob Budnicki completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nunes appeared in a blue A-line dress worn with a lace jacket and the groom's mother selected an apricot chiffon gown. Both wore corsages to complement their attire.

A reception was held at the Lion's Home in Madison, after the church service. The groom is employed at American Steel Foundries.

Court ruling may help police curb drug violations

With all the increased attention in Madison County on drug abuse and ways to reduce it, there is general approval of the June ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court broadening police authority to check the contents of automobiles.

The Fourth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution generally requires that police get warrants from judges before conducting searches. The warrants are to be used only if police show there is probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed.

The Supreme Court made an exception to that rule in the 1980s, stating that police did not need warrants to search cars because of their mobility. But the court has had difficulty defining how broad this exception is.

Fourth Amendment defenders like the American Civil Liberties Union view this month's decision as destructive of privacy rights. But the court took pains to spell out limits as well as search powers.

Writing for the majority, Justice John Paul Stevens said:

"Just as probable cause to believe that a stolen lawnmower may be found in a garage will not support a warrant to search an upstairs bedroom, probable cause to believe that a car is carrying drugs is being transported in a van will not justify an unwarranted search of a suitcase."

The new ruling was issued in a case involving a drug arrest. Police in the District of Columbia received a tip from a reliable informant that a drug dealer was in a particular location and that he had narcotics in the trunk of his auto. Police found a car matching the description and found heroin in a bag in the trunk.

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia ruled that the heroin could not be introduced into evidence because no warrant had been obtained. The Supreme Court reversed that conclusion.

Justice Stevens said the scope of a warrantless search of an auto "is not defined by the nature of the container in which the contraband is secreted. Rather, it is defined by the object of the search and the places in which there is probable cause to believe that it may be found."

Many police officials say this position removes a major obstacle to law enforcement. As they interpret it, officers now do not need a search warrant to search packages inside autos if the police have reason to believe they contain contraband.

While any procedure contains the possibility of abuse, the new ruling is far from the "unlimited search" authority that privacy advocates fear.

As the high court increasingly appears to accept, it is vital that our nation respect all rights but balance the rights of accused persons with the general public's right to expect that laws will be enforced.

In recent years, law enforcement has been hampered in cases where police stopped a car after a suspected drug transaction. If the vehicle operator was arrested on an unrelated charge, the vehicle could be impounded and searched later. But without probable cause to make an arrest, police were forced to release the suspect with his contraband, as long as it was in a container.

Thumbs down on dialysis, thumbs up on House staff

Alton Telegraph—If George Bush once thought Reaganomics was "voodoo economics," we wonder how he would describe some of the economic premises on which the Illinois General Assembly has taken the following actions:

—The Senate, citing the state's tight fiscal situation, moved to slash a negotiated 8 percent pay raise with most state employees down to 4 percent and cut out vacation and sick leave days.

—The same body then entertained but ultimately defeated a proposal to require legislators and state constitutional officers to go without pay for 10 days and all other state employees to have 5 payless days to save an estimated $40 million.

—While acting on these "cost cutting measures," the Senate turned around and refused to approve a bill which would recoup an estimated minimum of $83 million in revenues the state expects to lose in the coming fiscal year because of liberalized federal depreciation writeoffs.

—The Senate approved a huge salary increase for judges, who already make three to four times the pay of an average state employee.

Meanwhile, over in the Illinois House, legislators argued the state cannot afford a modest amount of money to keep open kidney dialysis treatment centers, and so they defeated an amendment for such funding.

—The House decided it can afford, however, a much larger appropriation to increase the budget for paying legislative salaries. Although the size of the House will be reduced by one-third in January.

A related amendment to substantially increase legislative staffing levels—based on the curious logic that fewer legislators will need more advice—narrowly failed in the House.

Hidden state tax on sick people

To the Editor:

The Illinois Hospital Association, which represents 243 hospitals in the state, in a series of letters to the conference has attacked the administration's 30 percent underfunding for hospital services in the state's Medicaid budget.

"The administration is attempting to slash the $200 million shortfall—in the form of a 'hidden-tax'—onto the paying sick of Illinois."

IHA leadership, speaking to the media throughout the state, has warned of drastic increases in health insurance premiums if the state administration continues its current Medicaid policies.

It has failed to address the fundamental problem, which is that the state can no longer afford to finance a "Cadillac" Medicaid program.

Korea is one of the few states which offers its Medicaid recipients 20 of the 32 optional health care services. Most states offer 15 options or less.

We cannot in good conscience ask the sick people of Illinois who pay for hospital services to carry the state for $300 million. This is a hidden tax and should be labeled as such.

Last year, the Illinois Hospital Association and the hospital industry voluntarily absorbed $106 million in losses for services to the state of Illinois.

We did this as responsible members of the state community, and because we only be a one-time cut.

Incredible breach of faith on the part of this administration.

The governor told us, and told everyone in his budget message, that he had attempted to be equitable in appropriations for the Medicaid program, not only in Illinois but in any state in the nation.

It comes at a time when the governor's own budget projects the highest Medicaid enrollments in the history of our state.

It is equally important for all areas of the state to realize that underfunding the Medicaid program is not solely an urban, inner city problem. It is a matter of significant financial consequences to every hospital in Illinois.

Unquestionably, it becomes a matter of survival for those hospitals with predominantly Medicaid patient populations.

ROBERT W. O'LEARY
President,
Illinois Hospital Association

Mosquito attack soon

Grab the repellent. Hordes of mosquitoes will descend on Illinois within two weeks, a mosquito expert warns.

Entomologist William Horsfall said conditions are right for the first spring brood of floodwater mosquitoes to hatch from eggs laid during last year's wet weather.

"The first brood is produced from eggs that were laid last summer and fall," he said. "They lie on the ground all winter, no matter whether they are under water or in the winter, whatever, doesn't matter."

"But when they have dried up, as they have done this year, and then get flooded, as they have now done with these general rains, we are now set for a large brood of these floodwater mosquitoes to be produced," he said.

Horsfall, professor emeritus of entomology at the University of Illinois, predicted the floodwater mosquitoes will take off from the water this week or next.

"I'll take two or three days for them to get used to the ground all winter, no matter whether they are under water or in the winter, whatever, doesn't matter."

"But when they have dried up, as they have done this year, and then get flooded, as they have now done with these general rains, we are now set for a large brood of these floodwater mosquitoes to be produced," he said.

News notes

A Reese Construction Co. of Cahokia contract to resurface a half-mile of Route 203 from south of the Illinois Terminal tracks to Fourth Street in Madison totals $78,781.

The U.S. unemployment rate of 9.5 percent of the work force in May (up from 9.4 percent in April) is a postwar record and may go higher. The figure has not been that big since the 9.9 percent jobs tally in 1941. But the average workweek is up slightly in recent weeks. Local unemployment in April included 16 percent in Granite City and 11.2 percent in Madison County. Newly-available state statistics show 11 percent jobs in Illinois during May, up from 10.4 in April.

Parents of a Granite City construction worker, aged 25, killed Dec. 9, 1980, when he fell into a trench while working on a collapsed sewer trench—filed a $6 million suit Friday in St. Louis Circuit Court. Defendants include General Motors, which was building a new assembly plant at Wentville.

Manuel De La O, 41, a management consultant, was hired Friday as the new executive director of the Bi-State Development Agency.

Six thousand backers of the Equal Rights Amendment attended a rally Sunday in Springfield. Only 35 states, three short of the number needed, have ratified the ERA and the deadline is June 30. There is active lobbying for legislative ratification in Illinois, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Florida.

Replacement of 17-year-old Madison County governmental computers is being considered.

TOUR WATERSHED AREA THURSDAY

Jim Krejci, Madison County assistant extension adviser, has organized a tour in Highland Silver Lake Watershed in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service and Silver Lake Watershed area farmers for Thursday, June 10 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

The best management practices being featured will be no-till wheat, conventional wheat plots, no-till wheat, conservation tillage — soybeans, and no-till drilled corn.

The tour will begin on the Walter Steiner farm site with the no-till corn variety plots. Steiner's farm is located north of Grantfork on Highway 160.

SERVE WARRANTS

Carry D. Mercille, 21, of 2909 Buxton Ave., was arrested near his home at 7:30 p.m. Friday on three outstanding warrants alleging failure to appear in court on charges of illegal possession of alcohol and illegal transportation of alcohol. He was released on $102 cash bond.

Liked carnival and workers

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Association for the Protection of Animals (APA), I would like to make a few comments in regard to the Overfest held last weekend and hope that you are able to publish them in the newspaper.

We were very pleased with the Murphy Brothers' Carnival and the people who helped us put up our stand and to take it down.

Also, something that I have never heard of, was that they had their own security all over the grounds, which is an excellent idea.

The rides were very clean and seemed to be quite safe.

None of the APA members received any kind of harassment from the carnival members.

Also, one of our members mentioned that her son helped the carnival set-up and close-down. He was paid quite well and treated nicely.

He said that it was a great carnival to work for; he has worked with several others that have come to town.

We think that the Overfest was quite a success, except for the bad weather. We hope that it continues each and every year and improves a little each time.

REGIONAL ZARR
Secretary, APA

ERA has majority of votes

To the Editor:

In the 11 votes taken on the ERA in the Illinois legislature, a majority of 11 votes were cast in the amendment's favor. But Illinois has not yet ratified the ERA, a proposed constitutional amendment that would guarantee equality under the law for women.

Regulate insurance adjusters

Public insurance adjusters will be licensed by the Illinois Department of Insurance beginning July 1. Under the new law, any individual working as a public adjuster prior to July 1 may be licensed by filing an application, accompanied by a $50 fee, and furnishing a surety bond in the amount of $5,000.

After that date, any applicant for a license must take an examination. The $50 fee is for a two-year license. Rep. John Cullerton, D-Chicago, sponsor, said, "It is a consumer protection bill that will have a tremendous effect in cleaning up a business where a lot of people are preying on innocent victims of fires and hurricanes and other disasters."

Client forms used by public adjusters must be approved by the state insurance director and their rate schedules must be filed with his office.

Public adjusters may not solicit clients during any low-producing occurrence; while fire department officials are at damaged premises; between the hours of 7 p.m. and 8 a.m.; and on Saturdays and Sundays.

NAMEBOOK-JILL CRASH

Phyllis Justus, 2020 Washington Ave., was slightly injured last week in a crash that damaged the rear of her car, westbound from Jill Avenue onto Nameooki Road, and the front of the northbound auto on Richard Valencia, 1708 Bremen Ave.

Liked carnival and workers

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Association for the Protection of Animals (APA), I would like to make a few comments in regard to the Overfest held last weekend and hope that you are able to publish them in the newspaper.

We were very pleased with the Murphy Brothers' Carnival and the people who helped us put up our stand and to take it down.

Also, something that I have never heard of, was that they had their own security all over the grounds, which is an excellent idea.

The rides were very clean and seemed to be quite safe.

None of the APA members received any kind of harassment from the carnival members.

Also, one of our members mentioned that her son helped the carnival set-up and close-down. He was paid quite well and treated nicely.

He said that it was a great carnival to work for; he has worked with several others that have come to town.

We think that the Overfest was quite a success, except for the bad weather. We hope that it continues each and every year and improves a little each time.

REGIONAL ZARR
Secretary, APA

ERA has majority of votes

To the Editor:

In the 11 votes taken on the ERA in the Illinois legislature, a majority of 11 votes were cast in the amendment's favor. But Illinois has not yet ratified the ERA, a proposed constitutional amendment that would guarantee equality under the law for women.

The FORUM

Education threatened in Illinois

To the Editor:

We must face the problems confronting education in Illinois.

For those who know the history of our nation, it will come as no surprise that education is a central concern.

From our founding, literacy and learning were judged to be essential.

If people were to be free, if democracy was to function, if we were to become a productive and secure nation — literacy and learning were then, and they are now, the only foundation upon which such a society could be constructed.

From generation to generation, this national commitment has been sustained in Illinois.

The belief in Illinois in the value of learning has always been strong. But our willingness to act on that commitment and translate our faith into tangible support has wavered.

The priority given to Illinois higher education, declined during the last decade.

The share of the State General Revenue Fund devoted to support higher education dropped.

During the same period, enrollments in Illinois public universities and colleges increased 26 percent, while state support, in constant dollars adjusted for inflation, declined by six percent.

Mayors honor ladies; install new officers

The Southwestern Illinois Council of Mayors of St. Clair, Madison and Monroe Counties will host its Ladies Night and installation of officers for 1982. The meeting will be held at Fischer's Restaurant, 2100 West Main St., Belleville. The hospitality hour begins with cocktails at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m. The cost is $35 per couple or $13 each with a cash bar. Mayor Don Melhorn and his wife, Dot, of Swansea will be the host and hostess. There will be five entrees on the menu, Bar-B-Q Ribs, Beef, Ham, Fried Chicken and Mostaccioli, plus vegetables and dessert. At 8 p.m. there will be a short presentation and prizes, followed by dancing to the music of the "Bullfrog." Persons wishing to attend may mail reservations and checks to Doris Neuhaus, 68 Glen Echo Dr., Glen Carbon, Ill. 62034, or call 1-268-5989. Reservations should be made by Thursday, June 17, so arrangements can be made. All reservations are guaranteed.

Schuman, class of '32 honored

Members of St. Louis University's 1932 graduating class were not the only "seniors" celebrating the university's 144th commencement at the Checkerdome. Forty-nine graduates of the class of 1932 also were in attendance and received applause from the students, faculty and families.

Dr. Harry A. Mittleman of East Alton, retired Circuit Judge Fred P. Schuman of Granite City, John L. Vigna of Collinsville and Franklin P. Wehrle of Highland were among the 50-year graduates honored. Founded in 1818, St. Louis University is the oldest university west of the Mississippi River.

LADY ABIGAIL AND SUNDANCE, will perform at the 16th annual Aina Shrine circus to be staged at the Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road, beginning Wednesday, June 9, and continuing through Friday, June 11. A variety of thrilling high wire acts, performances by elephants, and other animals as well as other unique circus presentations will highlight the program. A select group of clowns will entertain the patrons at all shows.

Aina Shrine names winners

Students in Quad-City area schools named winners in the annual Aina Shrine Parade art contest will be honored and receive awards at the circus performance on Thursday, June 10, at the Tri-City Speedway, Highway 205, according to an announcement by Vasil Eftimoff, administrative assistant-pupil personnel services, of the Granite City School District, who served as committee chairman for the contest. Entries were divided into three categories including Group One for the kindergarten, first, second and third grade pupils. Winners in this age competition are Jennifer Baker, Parkview

School, first; Laura Mock, Parkview School, second; and Marge Christiansen, Sacred Heart School, third.

Group two was arranged for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Ann Krystopa of St. Elizabeth School captured the first place honor, Cathy Charter, Wilson School, second, and Jesus Soto, Emerson School, third. Seventh and eighth graders were entered in Group three. Tim Ingram and Chris St. Peters, Prather Junior High School students, shared the first place award. ## Alert Madison employees foil packing company burglary Alert city employees here can be credited with capturing three men following the burglary of a local meat packing firm Memorial Day afternoon.

Arrested and charged with the burglary of Tarlas Meat Company, 1041 Greenwood St., Madison, are Quincy Taylor, 19, Miklos Larosa Redd, 20, and Robert Earl Cox, 22, all of East St. Louis.

An estimated $1,500 worth of meat and margarine was removed from a refrigerated truck on the premises. The alleged burglars used a fire tool to remove a hinge pin from the door of the vehicle to extricate the stolen goods.

Last week, Mike Skoklo, a Madison fireman, heard the Madison Police Department's dispatcher on his scanner arse on "suspicious activity" at the meat packing company. The dispatcher received the notice of activity from an "anonymous woman caller," said the police report.

Skoklo noted the transmission as describing the alleged burglars as driving a 1973 white and maroon Oldsmobile Cutlass. Moments afterwards, he noticed a vehicle matching that description eastbound on 12th Street. Further suspicion arose when he noticed the rear of the vehicle was "near to the ground," apparently due to an overloaded trunk, the report said.

At that point, Madison Police Chief Donald Bridgick also noticed a car matching the description southbound on McCambridge Avenue. When he was able, he stopped the vehicle at the intersection of McCambridge and Fifth Streets.

An inspection of the vehicle revealed a 65-pound box of ham shanks on the rear seat, one 30-pound box of margarine also on the rear seat, two 12-pound boxes of margarine in the trunk and three 30-pound boxes of margarine in the vehicle's trunk.

Police officers Richard Asperger and Timothy Simmons apprehended the alleged burglars and took them to the station for questioning, at which time John Tarlas, owner of the meat packing company, was notified to identify the property.

Following a positive identification of the merchandise, Tarlas told police that approximately $1,500 in bacon was still unaccounted for. At that point, police speculated that the merchandise had been moved to a separate location. All of the merchandise, Tarlas said, was loaded into the truck Saturday, May 29, in preparation for delivery June 1.

Following an interrogation of the alleged burglars, suspect Cox acknowledged that the bacon had been transported to a house in East St. Louis.

At that point, Madison police arranged with the cooperation of the East St. Louis Police Department, to have Cox taken to the house located at 1028 N. Third Street in East St. Louis to recover the bacon.

Plans for recovering the bacon entailed Cox's entering the house to retrieve one carton of bacon before police, who until then had been uncover, would advance to the house to recover the remainder of the bacon.

While police were monitoring Cox's action, the alleged burglar escaped from the watching officers. He remains at large.

The other two, Redd and Taylor, are in custody at the Madison County Jail awaiting a hearing date.

Southern Celia

By ALAN L. GANSBERG

HOLLYWOOD — Don't ever say that Celia Weston is a lot like the character of Jolene she portrays on CBS's hit series, "Alice." If you do, her mother will have a fit.

"My mother will always tell people, 'Celia is very well-educated,'" the actress reports. "I went to private school and to Salem College. I studied art."

But the real acting education began on Saturday mornings back in Spartanburg, S.C. when her older brother — who is a dentist — would call her on the phone and invite Celia to "hang out" at the local Sears.

"I used to watch the women there," Celia recalls. "We'd have a good time copying the redneck southerners. The people I grew up with were a very different breed of southerner, but Jolene is like the people I used to watch on Saturday mornings."

Following college, Celia made what she calls "a slow umbilical break" to New York City, where she acted on and off Broadway.

"Alice" is one of the first TV assignments she had ever had, but in the theater she's an established and respected actress of merit.

"I didn't have a southern accent by the time I got to New York," Celia remarked. "But doing 40 hours a week of a red-neck character makes it more prevalent."

For Celia, "Alice" is an admittedly "ideal situation." She joined a hit series several years after it reached that status. The audience now knows her. But she does not have to be worried about being tied to one character for seven years, because the show itself was running for more than five when she joined and nothing lasts forever on TV.

Yet, she hasn't gone Hollywood. Home is an apartment near the famous Schwab's drugstore. Many weekends you'll find her at the airport, flying to see her beau, who is teaching in the theater department at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Fans of "SCTV Comedy" on NBC will be glad to know that the Toronto-based Second City players are making a film. Directed by David Steinberg, who was with Second City in Chicago, the film will begin production in July. John Candy, Joe Flaherty, Eugene Levy and Katherine O'Hare will all participate. James Cagney must have liked working on "Ragtime." The long-time star has decided to do another film, "The Eagle of Broadway," in which he'll play the part of Bat Masterson, the sports writer. Cagney would like a shot at dancing in the film as well.

And no sooner did John Huston finish directing "Annie," then he put on his acting cap to appear as a psychiatrist in "Lovesick." His patient in the film is Dudley Moore.

Genie Ann Francis will be breaking into prime-time in a big way. After years on "General Hospital," she left the show earlier this year to try new things. Her first big assignment is in the CBS TV movie, "Bare Essence," in which she'll play a very ambitious young woman.

Remember the "Boomer" TV series on NBC? The show about a wandering dog who brings joy into peoples' lives warmed some hearts, but not the ratings when it aired. But tastes vary. The show is a "bow wow" in 46 countries overseas. They can't get enough of the pooch in Europe.

Last year Erik Estrada said he wanted no more of "CHiPs," but he came to terms. This year it's Larry Wilcox who says he's gone, and he is. There'll be no more Johnny Baker on the force when the series returns this fall.
